Industry Leader Highmark Inc. Selects C&S's 5010 Testing Module

King of Prussia, PA, May 18, 2010 - Highmark Inc. has chosen the ProVision 5010 Compliance Testing Module from C&S Research Corporation. This module produces ANSI X12 5010 compliant test files, and can also produce specifically designed non-compliant files. These X12 files can be labeled, modified, archived and resent for easy use in the testing process.

"We have successfully used ProVision in our 5010 claims end-to-end testing. The C&S team has demonstrated professionalism, expertise related to the standard and responsiveness to our needs!"

Baron Stare, Director, Highmark Inc.
